

WHERE THE COMMUNITY MEETS, CELEBRATES AND CREATES

The Maury Young Arts Centre is Whistler’s hub for arts, culture, and inspiration. The building is home to a theatre, a community Art Gallery, multi-purpose Workshop, meeting rooms and technical services, all managed by Arts Whistler. This creative, casual and user-friendly venue located in the centre of the Whistler Village is a fully accessible facility that can host a variety of events, programs and meetings.

The Arts Centre’s centrepiece is our 230-seat performance theatre, with a gallery/reception hall that offers stunning views of Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains. Our in-house technology and versatile spaces are ideal for digital and analogue presentations, performing arts programs, business meetings and community functions

The venue team at the Arts Centre is standing by to support meeting and event planners in achieving their event and budget goals with the following services:

- Event ticket sales
